

Position Advertisement
Tenure Track Position in Child and Adolescent Development
Specialty in Public Policy/Advocacy
San Francisco State University

The Child and Adolescent Development Program at San Francisco State University is now accepting applications for a tenure track position in area of Child Development. The successful applicant may teach the following undergraduate courses: professional roles in child and adolescent development; applied child and youth development; children, youth, and public policy; action research methods; and internship seminar and supervision.

Qualifications: Completed doctorate in field related to child development and/or children and families. Successful experience in college/university teaching; record of quality scholarship, research and/or creative activity; ability to work well in an interdisciplinary, applied program; and in a multiethnic, multicultural , urban environment.

Rank and Salary: Assistant Professor; salary commensurate with experience.

Starting Date: August 2008

Screening of applicants will be completed by October 10th, 2007.

Reference number: Ref: #17.07 . Send letter, current CV, three reference letters, and writing sample to: Dr. Charlotte Ferretti, Chair, Search Committee, Child and Adolescent Development Program, SCI 394, San Francisco State University, 1600 Holloway Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94132. For questions regarding the position, please contact Dr. Ferretti at 415-338-6976 or ferretti@sfsu.edu. For additional program information, see website at: <http://cad.sfsu.edu>

The Child and Adolescent Development Program is located within the College of Health and Human Services and is closely affiliated with the Marian Wright Edelman Institute. San Francisco State University, a member of the California State University system, serves a diverse student body of 29,000 undergraduate and graduate students. This University seeks to promote appreciation of scholarship, freedom and human diversity through excellence in instruction and intellectual accomplishment. SFSU faculty are expected to be effective teachers; demonstrate professional achievement and growth through research, scholarship, and/or creative work; and engage in community service on campus and in local communities. Ability to speak Spanish is highly desirable.

San Francisco State University is an Affirmative Action-Equal Opportunity Employer, including disabled persons and Vietnam veterans.