Important Notes:

- E ED Courses: The Elementary Education Department policy requires 50 hours observation/participation outside the classroom all for Elementary Education courses (E ED). If a student takes more than one Elementary Education course per semester, 50 hours are the maximum required and will count for all Elementary Education courses taken in that specific semester.
- Students must complete 2 courses in SPED, one at the 300 level and one at the 600 level.

General Education – Segment III

- ◆ Upper division courses must be taken in residence at SFSU
- ◆ The three courses (9 units) no longer need to be taken from one only cluster. Students still can select their courses from one cluster or from two or three different clusters.
- ◆ One course must fulfill the university's Cultural, Ethnic, or Social Diversity (CESD) requirement. That class will be designated with "CESD."
