Are you interested in traveling to Cambodia in May 2015?

Earn class credit (1 unit)

INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON CHILD DEVELOPMENT/NURSING

Tentative Educational Activities (subject to change)
- Volunteer at primary schools
- Visit community programs for mothers/children
- Visit medical clinics

Tentative Travel Activities (subject to change)
- Visit the Temples at Angkor Wat
- Visit the “Killing Fields” and Tuol Sleng, Museum of Genocide
- Boat ride on the Mekong River
- Visit Royal Palace and Buddhist Wat

Important Information about the Trip:
DATES: 2 weeks Mid - May 2015 - (after graduation) – early June, 2015
REGISTRATION MAXIMUM: 16-20 students (may have a lottery)

FACULTY: Dr. Nadine Agosta and TDB

ESTIMATED FEES: $3,000 - $4,000 including airfare TBD (Phnom Penh), food, transportation, tour guide for entire trip, and fee to the College of Extended Learning for travel insurance and course credit.

Information sessions will be held in Fall 2014. Look for emails regarding info session dates.

Questions? Email Nadine Agosta agosta.nadine@gmail.com