How to Change Major?

Change Major Request

Request to "Change Major" in Student Center
https://registrar.sfsu.edu/change\_major\_minor

The screenshot shows the 'Academics' section of a student center interface. A dropdown menu is open, listing various academic options. The 'Change Major' option is highlighted with a red box. Other visible options include 'Change Major Status', 'Class Schedule', 'Course History', 'Degree Progress Report', 'Enrollment Verification', 'Enrollment: Add', 'Enrollment: Drop', 'Enrollment: Edit', 'Enrollment: Swap', 'Exam Schedule', 'Extended Education Enrollment', 'Grades', 'Learning Management System', 'Transcript: Request Official', 'Transcript: View Unofficial', 'Transfer Credit: Modelling', 'Transfer Credit: Report', and 'What-if Report'. The background shows a navigation menu with 'Search', 'Plan', 'Enroll', 'My Academics', 'Gator Scheduler', and 'Degree Planner'. There are also sections for 'Deadlines', 'URL', 'This Week's Schedule', and a message stating 'You have no outstanding charges at this time.' with links for 'Important Student Fee Information' and 'Make a Payment'.

A photograph of a university campus. In the foreground, several students are walking on a paved path. Some are carrying backpacks. In the middle ground, a set of concrete stairs leads up a hillside. To the right, there is a large, mature evergreen tree. In the background, a modern building with a distinctive geometric, angular facade is visible. The sky is blue with some light clouds. A semi-transparent white banner is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the title text.

Concentration Descriptions

SAN FRANCISCO
STATE UNIVERSITY

CAD – Early Care & Education

This concentration is for students who wish to work primarily with young children (infants, toddlers, and preschoolers) and their families in settings such as child care centers and preschools.

This concentration is aligned with the California Child Development Permit (the teaching credential for preschool and younger) and the Early Childhood Special Education graduate program at SF State.

Visit the CAD website for more information about child development permits, including funding, resources, recommended courses and support for permit applications

CAD – Elementary Education Teaching Pre-Credential

This concentration is recommended as preparation for students who wish to become:

- Elementary school teachers (usually in grades TK-6) and plan to enroll in Multiple Subjects Teaching Credential programs
- OR*
- K-12 special education teachers and plan to enroll in the Education Specialist Credential after graduation

Aligned with courses that will serve as an automatic fulfillment of the CSET requirement in the SF State Graduate College of Education for the Multiple Subject Credential and three Special Education credentials

CAD – Community Health & Social Services

This concentration prepares students to work primarily with children and families from birth through early adulthood in community, health, and social service settings:

- Out-of-school time (after-school/summer) programs
- Youth work
- Social service agencies
- Recreation programs
- Juvenile justice
- Social work
- Counseling
- Psychology
- Nursing
- Pediatrics
- Occupational therapist
- Physical therapist
- Child Life Specialist

Early Childhood Development Minor

Early Childhood Development Minor

- Not available for Early Childhood/Early Care & Education majors
- Benefits
  - Support students with a need/desire for knowledge in early childhood development without the cost and time burden of a double major
  - Meets requirements for various levels of the CA Child Development Permit
  - Supports advancement to higher levels of the CA Child Development Permit
  - By 2025, 10,000 new transitional kindergarten (TK) teachers will be needed. The minor will provide future Multiple Subject Credential (MSC) teachers with the 24 units of early childhood education required by law to teach TK.
  - Can help prepare for graduate studies that involve young children and families (therapists, psychologists, counseling, teaching, etc.)
