

Unity Church of San Francisco is a vibrant spiritual community that honors the Divine Presence in all, and radiates the Unity message through loving service. We're a fast-paced, vibrant, and inspiring center. Our children's ministry program, called In-Play, educates children on spiritual lessons through arts & crafts, hands on activities, and group play. For more information: <https://unitysf.com/in-play/>

This role will assist in the development of Spiritual Education curriculum and lessons for children attending Unity San Francisco, ages infant to 8th grade. In addition, they will recruit, train, and coordinate volunteers and paid staff helpers. The ideal candidate will have some experience in childhood education/development (or is in school to learn), has experience working with youth, excellent communication skills, and a passion for helping young people reach their potential. Reports directly to the Chief Operating Officer (COO) for operational/administrative needs, but also works closely with the Senior Minister.

- Selects and/or develops relevant age-appropriate curriculum and engaging activities that align with Unity values. Check our website for more information on what Unity teaches: <https://unitysf.com/about/>
- Willingness to teach a Sunday lesson at any age level when needed.
- Consult with Senior Minister on developing spiritual lessons
- Volunteer management
- Consults with parents of children in the program when concerned with children's special needs.
- Be available Sundays approximately from 9:00a - 1:00p
- May occasionally need to attend staff meetings if requested by COO or Senior Minister (this is flexible)
- Must pass a background check
- This is an independent contractor position
- $250 per week