

PICT

PIPELINE TO INCREASE COMMUNITY TEACHERS

The Alameda County Office of Education is providing an opportunity to become a TK-12 educator. The Pipeline to Increase Community Teachers program (PICT) is designed to provide school districts with qualified substitutes who are familiar with the community in which they work. PICT will provide qualified community members the opportunity to support their community. This program will provide the support necessary to be successful in a classroom.

Do you want to make a difference where you live?

Do you have
At least 90 college units?

Lift Barriers

ACOE will lift barriers in support of community members doing this work by providing the tools and means to be successful. Fingerprinting fees, test prep, pedagogical knowledge, and preparation for working with students will be included.

Sign-Up Here !

Applications are being accepted now!

Compensation

Participants who complete the program could earn up to $1250

Questions?

Email: cjackson@acoe.org

Click here for specific program information

GET PAID TO TRY OUT TEACHING
IN YOUR COMMUNITY

PICT

PIPELINE TO INCREASE
COMMUNITY TEACHERS

Do you want to make a
difference where you live?

Do you have
At least 90 college units?

The Alameda County Office of Education is providing an opportunity to become a TK-12 educator. The Pipeline to Increase Community Teachers program (PICT) is designed to provide school districts with qualified substitutes who are familiar with the community in which they work. PICT will provide qualified community members the opportunity to support their community. This program will provide the support necessary to be successful in a classroom.

Lift Barriers

ACOE will lift barriers in support of community members doing this work by providing the tools and means to be successful. Fingerprinting fees, test prep, pedagogical knowledge, and preparation for working with students will be included.

Sign-Up Here !

<https://tinyurl.com/PICT2registration>

Applications are being accepted now!

Questions?

Email: cjackson@acoe.org

For specific program information:
<https://tinyurl.com/PICT2023>

Compensation

Participants who complete the program could earn up to $1250

GET PAID TO TRY OUT TEACHING
IN YOUR COMMUNITY

PICT

PIPELINE TO INCREASE
COMMUNITY TEACHERS

Do you want to make a
difference where you live?

Do you have
At least 90 college units?

The Alameda County Office of Education is providing an opportunity to become a TK-12 educator. The Pipeline to Increase Community Teachers program (PICT) is designed to provide school districts with qualified substitutes who are familiar with the community in which they work. PICT will provide qualified community members the opportunity to support their community. This program will provide the support necessary to be successful in a classroom.

Lift Barriers

ACOE will lift barriers in support of community members doing this work by providing the tools and means to be successful. Fingerprinting fees, test prep, pedagogical knowledge, and preparation for working with students will be included.

Sign-Up Here !

Applications are being accepted now!

Questions?

Email: cjackson@acoe.org

For specific program information

Compensation

Participants who complete the program could earn up to $1250

GET PAID TO TRY OUT TEACHING
IN YOUR COMMUNITY